There is still time to sign up for The Timothy Project Summer Mission Trip to Charleston, South Carolina. Since the success of our auction the price has dropped to $100. Please see Terri Lucas ASAP if you are interested. The Timothy Project connects with those needing assistance in home repair and construction in the Charleston area in partnership with "Metanoia." There are also opportunities for education in community missions.

The cost includes: six nights youth hotel lodging, four days coordinated mission activities, six breakfasts, four lunches, four dinners, evening activities and beach cookouts.
